Wesleyan's Foreign Student Pro

Ohio Wesleyan's active foreign student program is sponsored by the Intercultural relations committee with much aid from Wesleyan alumni and the Institute of International Education. Under the chairmanship of Dr. Paul T. Hahn, and with Miss Helen Fretts as secretary, the committee is responsible each year for twenty University scholarships, sixteen to foreign students and four to displaced persons. Another reliable friend of the foreign student is the Foreign Student Aid Fund, which is supported by the annual Campus Chest drive. Faculty members, alumni, and residents of Delaware have been a big help in making the foreign students feel at home by providing holiday visits, jobs, and educational trips.

FIRST ROW: C. Teichman, W. Wright, M. Svinzov, I. Jurjans. SECOND ROW: O. Kim, K. Ahn, F. Kiang, H. Lunau, A. Keil, M. Mudarris, E. Berger, A. Joffa. THIRD ROW: K. Lau, W. Wong, V. Pareizs, V. Sliupas, T. Li, J. Iatrides, S. Takata, G. Stankievich, A. Foong.

Program is unique.

With their faculty advisor, Miss Mary Helen Fretts, our foreign students present the problems they are facing to the rest in an informal get-together.

Three foreign students engage in a chat and some chocolate cake in Monnett parlor.

Wesleyan's foreign students have organized themselves here on campus into the International Students Association. With Horst Lunau as president this year, the foreign students have had many good times beginning with a tea early in the school year, holiday parties, and informal get-togethers where common problems are discussed and experiences traded. Perhaps the most important feature of Wesleyan's foreign student program is that the students become truly a part of Ohio Wesleyan. They participate eagerly in activities both social and academic. They learn much from us, and the University, in turn, learns much from them.

Mary Lynch, R. N., takes care of that sprained wrist of John Iatrides.

"Advanced education in China is a new thing, not only for girls, but for the young men of China as well," admits Tim Wei-po Li who came to Wesleyan from Peking. "That is why there are not many colleges in China and why the existing ones are so small. Most Chinese colleges are similar to American colleges, however."

Tim came here to study music, Western style, since Chinese music has never been academically developed. He was amazed by the great variety of courses offered here and the wonderful facilities which are available to the students. "Chinese colleges are very active in politics," says Tim. "The students often stage mass demonstrations against government policies and actions. Even though my country has been ravaged by war and the people are poor, the students are serious, more serious than in America, and they have accepted the responsibility which their opportunity for education has placed upon them. The college program in China is more limited, more restricted than in America, and the opportunities for advanced education are very few. Most Chinese students would not believe the great opportunities which are given to so many American students."

University Hall

Edgar Hall

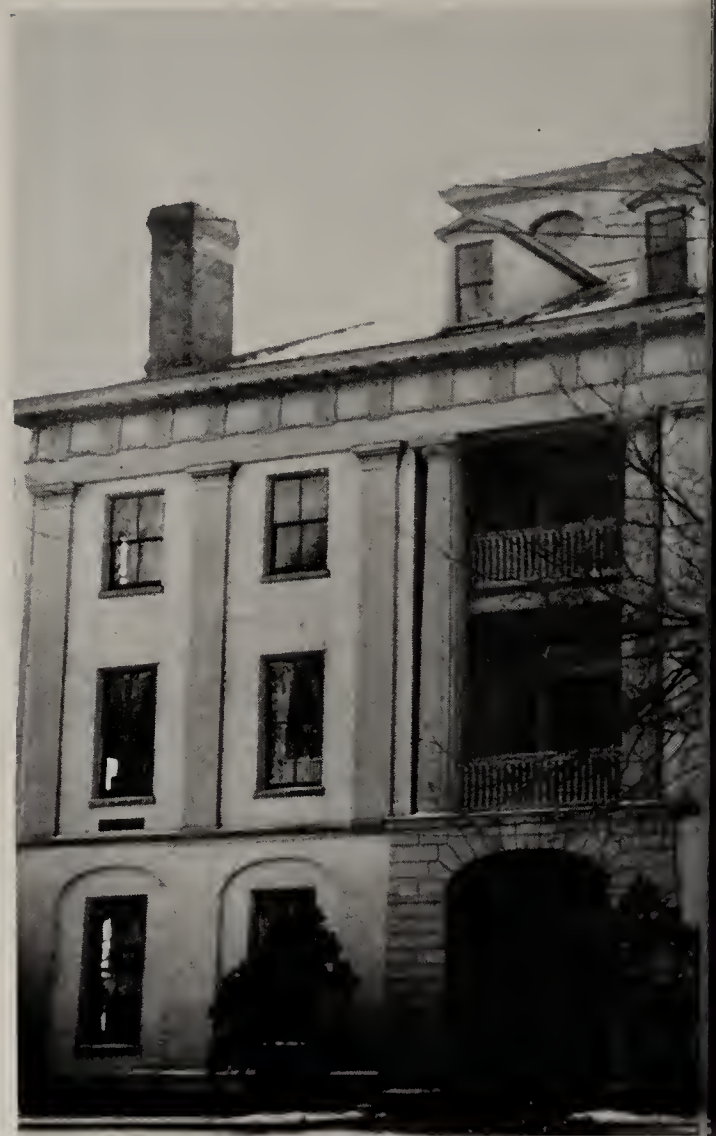

Slocum Library

the buildings we utilize . . .*

Foremost of Wesleyan's buildings is University Hall, within which are the head offices of the school, chapel, and a score of classes. In the shadow of the grandeur that is University Hall, is the Charles Elihu Slocum Library, within whose walls are over 200,000 volumes, a worthy tribute to Wesleyan's reputation for scholarship. Modern Edgar Hall is home to the Chemistry and Business Administration Departments.

Sturges Hall

Elliot Hall

Renowned for its exquisite interior, Sturges Hall offers a warm atmosphere for the receptions given by the home economics department. Elliot Hall, oldest in Wesleyan tradition, is home to the physics and education departments. Within the ivy-covered gray stone walls of Merrick Hall are the geology, math, and living science departments. Almost a reality after two long years of construction, the new ultra-modern Memorial Union is now part of our campus.

THE PRESIDENT

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming

June 11, 1948 brought to Ohio Wesleyan a man whom we have all come to love and admire. Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, ninth president of Ohio Wesleyan, has displayed here the same dynamic qualities that were evident in his work with the U. S. Civil Service and Hoover Commission. A prominent member of Wesleyan's graduating class of 1927, he has continued to remain outstanding in all educational and governmental work he has done. As busy as he is, however, Dr. Flemming still finds time to give his attention to individuals and organizations on campus and has won our respect and appreciation of his loyalty to, and faith in Ohio Wesleyan.

Dr. Flemming enjoys being surrounded by his family: twins Tom and Art, Elizabeth, Harry, Mrs. Flemming, and Susan.

Dr. Burgstahler, Dean Ficken, Vice President Shipps, and President Flemming.

Mrs. Masa Powers Nakayama receives the Degree of Doctor of Laws from Dr. Flemming.

THE CHANCELLOR

Chancellor H. J. Burgstahler

President of Ohio Wesleyan University until 1947, Dr. Burgstahler now has, as Chancellor, the main responsibility of finance promotion. In addition to being finance consultant for the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, the Chancellor this year has the added task of general director on the Commission of the Four Methodist Colleges of Ohio.

Board of Trustees

The governing body responsible for the main phases of university action is the Ohio Wesleyan Board of Trustees. The charter of the Board of Trustees gives the group the power to confer all degrees, to transact all business affairs for the university, and to appoint the administration and the faculty. Under the leadership of President Harvey O. Yoder, the Board of Trustees does its work through various committees. To help govern the board, its thirty-nine members elect an executive committee that meets every month. Devoted to the interests of this university, the Board of Trustees may truly be called the backbone of Ohio Wesleyan.

Allen C. Canger, Registrar Donald J. Harnberger, Treasurer

D. B. Watkins, Assistant Treasurer

The strength of a university depends upon the strength of its administration. Ohio Wesleyan is fortunate to have administrators, each one excellent in his field. Allen C. Conger handles the students' academic files. Monetary matters are taken care of by Treasurer D. J. Hornberger and his assistant, D. B. Watkins. Dr. C. E. Ficken serves as Dean of the College assisted by Allen C. Ingraham. Watching over Wesleyan's students are Audrey M. Parker, Dean of Women and J. J. Somerville, Dean of Men.

Admissions Office

Mrs. Glen Murrar, Alumni Fund Secretary; Herman M. Shipps, Vice President and Director of University Relations; Tracey Janes, Field Representative.

Miss Mary Anne Denison, Assistant Editor, OWU Magazine; and Mrs. Gilbert H. Barnes, Editor of the Ohio Wesleyan Magazine.

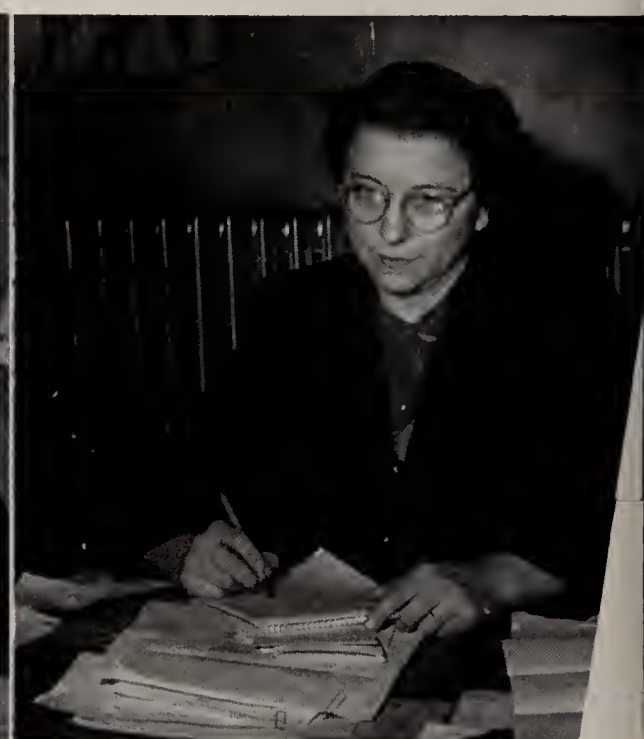

The Admissions Office plays an important part in the Wesleyan family by choosing those who are to become new students. Mr. Herman M. Shipps directs admissions so that every applicant is judged not only upon grades and test scores, but on an interview to find out how much he really wants an education.

Miss Mary Helen Fretts, Admissions Counselor.

Fred Pallock and Dave Puddington, Admissions Counselors.

Mrs. Annabelle Ruffner, Secretary, Alumni Office.

Placement Bureau

The Placement Program, expanded a year ago at Wesleyan, endeavors to place each graduating student in an occupation of his own field of interest. Under the aggressive reorganization of Mrs. Boecklin and Mrs. Nutt, the bureau succeeded in placing all but one of the 317 seniors who applied the past year.

Mrs. Roland Boecklin

Mrs. Nutt

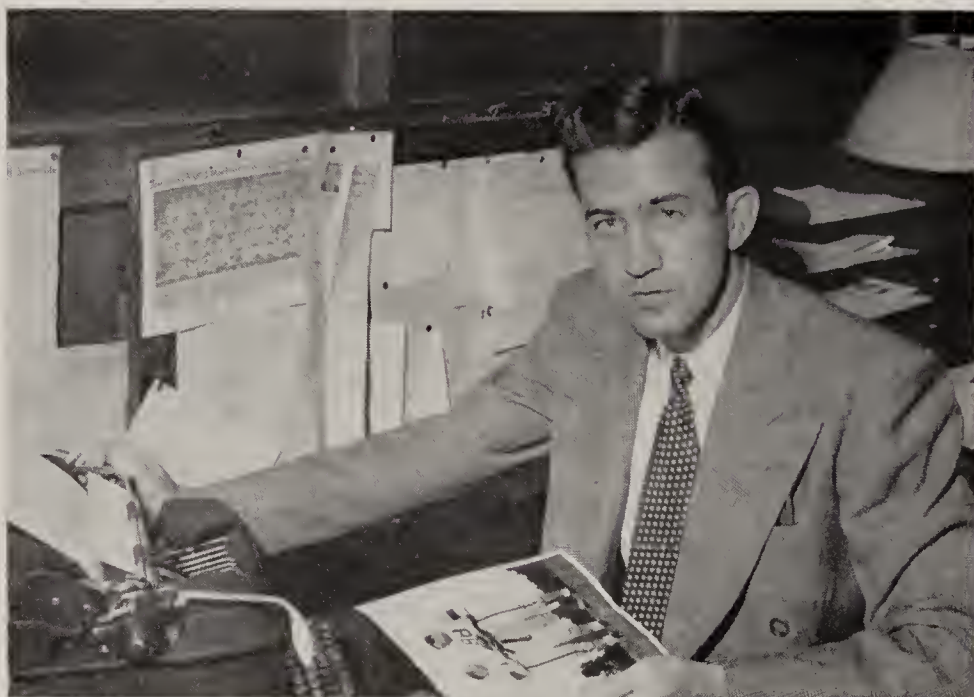

Joanna Orland confers with Mrs. Boecklin.

Publicity Department

Steadfast in her work is Mrs. Jean Wiesen, secretary of the department.

Working together as the official news outlet of the university, the members of the Publicity Department publish a task force of information including the "Ohio Wesleyan News", the "Log", and freshman handbook. The department is managed by Mark Lipper, who handles publicity news in general, and by Thomas Pastorius, head of the sports department.

Tom Pastorius, Director of Athletic Publicity.

Mark Lipper, Director of News Publicity.

Library Staff

Ohio Wesleyan's library staff, which helps many a bewildered freshman and upperclassman through the maze of volumes far within the Charles Slocum Library, is not often commended for its fine work. We, here at Wesleyan, really do appreciate the helping hand shown to all by the staff's twelve librarians.

Student Health Office

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure! This is the feeling of Wesleyan's active Student Health Service, which, under the capable head of Dr. George J. Blydenberg, has made great gains in keeping our student body a healthy and happy one. Physical examinations for incoming freshmen and physical therapy by Dr. Freeman have done much toward achieving this goal.

November 4, 1950, saw the loss of one of Ohio Wesleyan's most beloved and highly respected members. Miss Marie Drennan, for 33 years a member of the Ohio Wesleyan family, graduated in the class of 1915 and returned to Wesleyan as an instructor in English from 1917-1920. After obtaining her Master's degree at Ohio State University, she returned to Wesleyan in 1921 and held the rank of associate professor in English from 1938 until her death. A member of Phi Beta Kappa here at Wesleyan, Miss Drennan was graduated magna cum laude.

From the first long week of classes and that adjustment in learning "how to study", through the four years we have been here at Wesleyan, our professors have been an inspiration. When we were overwhelmed by Religion III, they taught and guided us. When we were occasionally right, or at least interested, they encouraged us. But more than any of these, we admire and commend our faculty for just being "downright friends" to us. No problem has ever been too small or too difficult to warrant any of our teachers' personal and helpful consideration. With them behind us, we go out from Wesleyan today prepared to face and master the situations of tomorrow. It has not only been a pleasure but a privilege to have studied under such teachers.

In Class . . .

Mathematics—Professor Matthews expounds on the right triangle as bewildered students look on.

Amid a convolution of ideas, abstract concepts, and scientific apparatus found in the classroom, one is likely to discover a student gaining some fragment of that rarely-sought ingredient—knowledge. Whether it be an unforeseen explosion in a chemistry lab or the groans accompanying a colonial history exam, we know that it is the classroom which has made Wesleyan the truly great seat of learning that it is.

Home Economics—Joon BeVier and Celeste Youker add the finishing touches to a Sturges meal.

Education—Student teacher Jackie Jones describes Charlie Chipmunk to amazed onlookers.

Physics—Afternoon lab finds these young physicists hard at work on the resolution of parallel forces.

Chemistry—Dr. Lorsen demonstrates an experiment using liquid oxygen before students G. Kookootsedes and A. Emery.

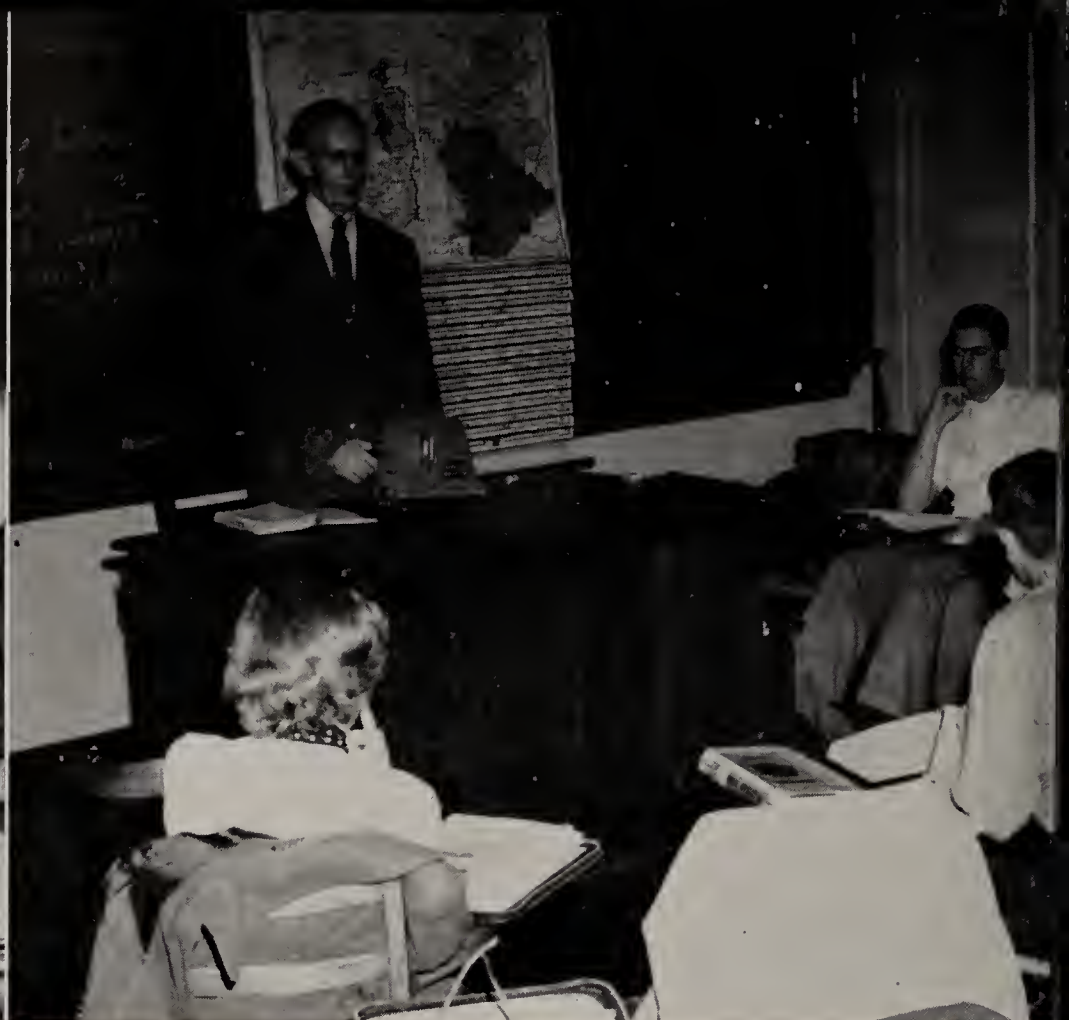

Art—Lyons Art Hall students display the fruits of their labors from the classroom.

Religion—Professor Hutson glances at student in classroom discussion.

Geology—Professor Hundermork ponders over a problem involving anticlines or synclines.

History—Professor Eells lectures on the rise of democracy.

We work, study . . .

Foreign Language—Professor Ficken instructs in the oral usage of our neighbors across the sea.

Botany—Professor Burns supervises microscope work in the botany laboratory.

Journalism—Beginning courses in journalism occupy the time of these students.

English—Shakespeare in the classroom by Professor Amy.

Zoology—The interior of a frog occupies these young zoologists.

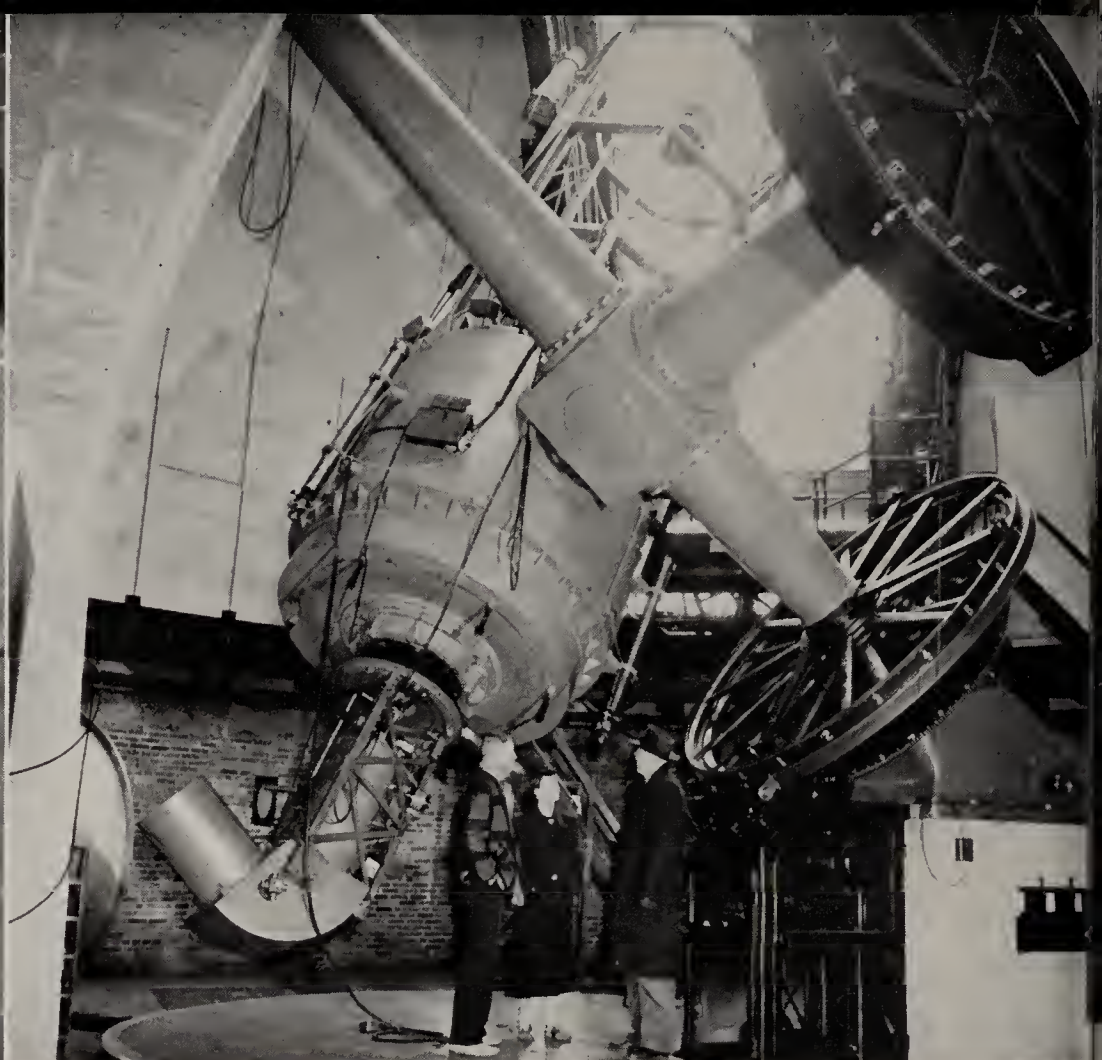

Philosophy—Professor Easton compares Spinoza and Aristotle.

Economics—Professor Ullom's lectures in the field of business temporarily baffle students.

Astronomy—Perkin's magic eye scans the heavens.

Political Science—Professor Strochan discusses the foundations of our country's foreign legislation.

Speech—Speech students ore busy with what to say and how to say it.

Sociology—Professor Macrory's sociology class is transformed into a free-for-all panel discussion.

Music—Under Professor Well's supervision, voice students diligently practice their scales.

Physical Education—Mr. Hoffman presents Bob Gardner with the outstanding player award at the end of football season.

Psychology—Mr. Sampson supervises students taking mechanical ability tests.

Reserve officers of tomorrow display their skill in precision marching.

One of the highest honors that can fall on a member of the Wesleyan A.R.O.T.C. is election to the national Arnold Air Society. Called the Patten-Worley squadron, the group was organized on our campus in the fall of 1949 and holds as its minimum requirements for entrance that a student in advanced R.O.T.C. should have, besides outstanding qualities of leadership, a 3.0 scholastic average. This year the squadron, besides holding an R.O.T.C. ball in all military decorum, created a new organization for basic military science students called the Command Squadron.

At the request of the University, the Air Force established an Air Reserve Officers Training Corps here at Ohio Wesleyan in the fall of 1949. Boasting only thirty-seven men in its first year, the enrollment had, by the fall of 1950, skyrocketed to 399. In view of the existing draft laws, President Flemming enabled upper classmen to be eligible to enroll in the program. Thus, in view of the ever increasing international situation, the Air R.O.T.C. on our campus proposes to attract the highest type of personnel into the Air Force, thus strengthening and reaffirming the dignity of our nation's armed forces.

Dormitory Life

A chief purpose of a college education is to teach the individual to better associate with others. Dorm life is overflowing with such opportunities for the women of Ohio Wesleyan. This entire atmosphere of friendliness which circulates throughout the dorms may be seen in the impromptu group singing in the dining rooms, in the sharing of packages from home, at meals, and in the dormitory smokers. With friendships ever increasing, dorm life plays one of the most prominent parts in the activities of Wesleyan women.

In their small, friendly community of more than fifty trailers, Wesleyan veterans have set up their own government, headed by a mayor and city council.

Elections are held annually in the Vetville Community. Shown here, is the elections committee tabulating votes for the mayor and the city council.

An innovation in housing at Ohio Wesleyan was brought about by World War II, when Vetville became the home of married veterans and their families.

"You Americans!" laughs Wendy Wright, who claims London, England as her home town. "Everyone here is always in such a terrible hurry trying to save time just so they can waste it somewhere else." Wendy likes the friendliness of Wesleyan students and says "not one single person has done the slightest thing to make me dislike them."

"Students in England are ever so much more serious," comments Wendy. "They are better informed on social and political problems and many courses which are offered in advanced study here are the basic courses in English high schools. It is absolutely compulsory for everyone to have four years of French and most schools require four years of Latin, too." Wendy is impressed by the freedom which Wesleyan students, especially the girls, enjoy. In England, girls and boys do not go to school together and are given little chance to associate with each other until their schooling days are over.

"Your tea isn't very good and no one in England keeps leftovers in the refrigerator. These are the only complaints I have about America. As for Wesleyan, I think it's—what is that word you use all the time—I think it's just terrific!"

The Students

SENIORS

There is a new feeling here at Ohio Wesleyan. It is an intangible something that has appeared as the graduating class of 1951 prepares to say good-bye. This class came to Wesleyan when the world had high hopes for peace and prosperity, when veterans were starting school on the GI bill, when politicians promised a return to normalcy.

You can sense this new feeling in the dorms and fraternity houses while the radios blare out the latest news from the UN and Korea. You can hear it in Dr. Flemming's chapel talks or in the passing conversation of a couple of girls in the Tub. It's everywhere, it's the war scare, the worry about tomorrow, the fear for a restless world that has not yet recovered from the last great conflict.

But Wesleyan's seniors are going out into this troubled world armed with a sound education and a reserve supply of emotional stability. Men and women from Wesleyan are ready and willing to give themselves and their talents to the service of their country.

JUNIORS

The very capable hands of Bill Kelly and Doodie Fillingham have charted the course for the junior class this year.

Juniors are funny people. One minute they are wishing so desperately for next year, just waiting for the chance to be seniors. The next minute they are literally weeping at the thought of only one more year at Wesleyan. Yes, the juniors are right. They have only one more year to enjoy a springtime walk from Monnett to the Tub, only one more year to cheer for the Bishops, to sit through a myriad of chapels.

But you can be sure of one thing. Anyone who knows this jumpin' junior class will agree that just as they have done in the past, the juniors will continue to get the most out of every minute.

Bill Kelly, president, and Doodie Fillingham, secretary, of the junior class.

Sophomore President Marion Lightfoot and his busy Sophomore Council have kept the sophomore class in the number one spot in campus publicity this year.

There were rumors of defying Student Council, of petitions, of a sophomore rebellion as the arguments waxed and waned over whether or not the sophomores could hold the annual Sophomore Dance.

After that fracas died down, the class took tradition in hand and staged the now-famous Chapel Walk-Out, which resulted in a good dousing for the dinkless freshmen.

In the end, there were few hard feelings and a lot of admiration for the spunky sophomores who weren't afraid to speak up for themselves.

Darrell Hodge and Jean Lowry were the first class officers to be elected by the new freshmen election laws which went into effect this year.

The freshmen girls threatened to be the smartest ever as the story spread from fraternity to fraternity that "my gosh! they're all valedictorians!"

But valedictorians or not, both the freshmen men and women have used their sparks of college enthusiasm to advantage. A high percentage of them pledged during rushing and it seems as though there have never been so many freshmen bustling around campus, first to a meeting, then to a conference and possibly to an occasional class.

Okgill Kim is truly representative of young Christian womanhood in the world today.

By birth, Okgill is a Korean, but she is quick to admit that America will always have a warm place in her heart. Okgill has not wasted any of her precious time in America. She studies and she has fun, too. Okgill is one of the most active members in one of Wesleyan's oldest organizations, the YWCA. Representing Wesleyan, she was one of the delegates to the national YWCA conference which was held this winter at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

"While I am living in America," says Okgill, "I am working for my people." This is very true, for Okgill has given many lectures and speeches to women's clubs, college groups and "Y" organizations about her native land and its problems.

"How wonderful it would be," Okgill confesses, "if the whole world could live at peace with itself." That is Okgill's favorite dream, and she is working toward the realization of it.

The Activities

President of the Student Body Jud Millhon; Vice president, Marilyn Musselman; Treasurer, James Meyers; and Secretary, Richard Rosser.

Our Elected Officers . . . Student Government

Wesleyan, long accustomed to excellent student governments, saw one of her finest this year. The administration, under the guidance of Student Body President, Jud Millhon, and Vice-President, Marilyn Musselman, was a paragon of good organization and efficiency, respected by the faculty and supported solidly by the students, whom it represented both here and elsewhere.

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: (outside counter clockwise) J. Stephens, B. Welp, S. Schweiker, B. Kelly, D. Rosser, J. Millhon, M. Musselman, J. Meyers, Deon Ficken, Deon Porker, C. Corr, B. Hardman, J. Hinton. SECOND ROW: (inside counter clockwise) M. Lightfoot, G. Turner, N. Fillinghom, J. Lowry, D. Hodge, P. Murphy.

Associated Women Students

Associated Women Students serves the Wesleyan coed not only as a judicial body, but also to sponsor projects beneficial to the woman. It cooperates with the University Administration in maintaining high ideals. The women of the University are bestowed with many responsibilities as well as privileges which make a rich college life.

Monnett Day

The weekend of Mother's Day is one never to be forgotten. Alumni, as well as the honored guests — the mothers of Wesleyan students, enjoy the traditional festivities of this, our Monnett Day. The campus is alive with the typical activities of preparation for plays, serenades, and the climax of crowning the Monnett Queens.

Monnett Chapel pays tribute to mothers each spring.

Dick Wooley's campus dance band provided many a couple with an evening's enjoyment.

The campus dance band, its new vocalist, Dana Cleveland, and leader-trombonist, Dick Wooley, further enhanced their standing in Wesleyan social circles by furnishing danceable and listenable music for every occasion, from formals at several Greek houses to all-campus "shindigs" in Edwards Gym. In addition to these appearances on OWU soil, the band played for dances at Kenyon College and in neighboring cities. Wooley's partner, Bob Sidnell, handles the group's business affairs.

Talent Bureau

Ever since its founding in 1949, the Talent Bureau has been kept busy booking talented Wesleyan students, not only for campus functions but also for the clubs and organizations of Delaware and outlying communities. Headed this year by Tom Seldon, it furnished the acts for "Mid-Century Frolics," the Dad's Day Show, and material for a television appearance on WLW-C, plus many other occasions as well.

Campus Chest

The Campus Chest is a relatively new organization on our campus. However, during the past two years, it has proven its worth. The organization combines all the benefit fund drives into one large drive. Student solicitors in the dormitories and fraternity houses, the auction during chapel, and the sorority variety show all helped the organization in meeting its desired goal.

Jeonne Johnson and Dove Boker auction off prizes in chapel.

The Tri Delts won the Campus Chest Variety show.

The Red Cross

One of the most active and outstanding organizations on Wesleyan's campus is the Red Cross Unit. This group is dedicated to the helping of others. Just as important as service to others are the opportunities opened for the participating students. Its many committees take an active part in all phases of campus and community life. Prominent among its projects are the blood program and Chillicothe.

LEFT TO RIGHT: C. Stewart, M. Moon, N. Stevens, B. Baldwin, B. Johns, Miss Seamens, J. Roberts, D. Griffiths, D. Kuck, J. Smith, R. Schwinn, B. Bradley, G. Berquist, M. Appleman, A. Ferguson.

"This won't hurt a bit."

Jane Gray finds there is red tape in giving blood, just as in everything else.

. . . DURING THE WEEK . . .

Chapel

The traditional Monday, Wednesday, and Friday chapel programs have become an important part of the life of Wesleyan's student body. These programs provide an opportunity for the student body to assemble together and hear outstanding speakers and lecturers of the day, religious services, and programs by campus groups. The programs are varied in order that all phases of life may be thoroughly covered.

Students who plan to enter the ministry or missionary work constitute the Friar's Club. Its members combine worship, study, and fellowship in their program. Through these experiences they gain insight into the work that they will do.

United Fellowship

With Thyra Mack as president, this worthy organization recently combined with the Canterbury Club, and together they enjoy discussion groups, outings, speakers, movies, and plan some of the morning services at the Presbyterian church.

The Baptist, Presbyterian, and Episcopal churches here in Delaware support the United Fellowship in its endeavor to give students a better understanding of Christ.

A Capella Choir

This selective group, under the direction of Professor Keller, gave a series of outstanding performances in the past year. Highlighting the year were the Christmas program and nation-wide broadcast over station W.T.A.M. in Cleveland, the presentation of Elijah in cooperation with the Women's and Men's Glee Clubs, and the annual spring tour.

Where there's Music . . .

The aim of every student interested in any form of music is to be accepted into one of the vocal or instrumental groups within the music department. Whether it be in a selective honorary, A Cappella choir, or a glee club, or whether it be with some instrumental organization such as the orchestra or band, Wesleyan students can find no other richer and more creative experience.

University Symphony Orchestra and the

The roll by drummers, Bob Campbell and Lais Malish, announces the artistry of Rovel.

Great listening pleasure in the instrumental vein was provided by the Ohio Wesleyan Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Professor Hamilton. A concert was presented in November, featuring Tschaikowsky's Concerto No. 1 with Chester Barris as piano soloist. Other activities included the accompaniment of the opera and "Elijah." As part of its spring tour of high schools, the orchestra played "Peter and the Wolf" at Massillon.

Wesleyan's band at halftime.

the Drum Majorettes . . .

Ohio Wesleyan's band upheld their long tradition by this year placing on the halftime field one of the largest, finest, and most versatile marching groups seen in years. With Charles Thompson as director and Richard Hoffman as our new drum major, the ensemble executed unique formations in not only an entertaining but professional manner.

Delta Sigma Rho

DEBATE HONORARY

Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary, has been active on the Wesleyan campus since 1907. Requirements for membership are a broad background in oratory and a point average of at least 2.5. Bob Hardman heads the organization for this year, which has had as one of its projects the sponsoring of the British University debate team. Five representatives of this group will attend the biennial DSR Congress in Washington, D. C. in April.

Debate

Initiating their season by a contest with the British Universities team, the Wesleyan debating group emerged to tie for first with Denison in the annual area collegiate tournament. While six women debaters placed second at the women's tournament at Capitol, Wesleyan's squad was busy with other oral battles at Oberlin, Kent State, Case, and Delta Sigma Rho Congress at Chicago. Professor Diem served in the capacity of Director of Forensic.

The Ohio Wesleyan Transcript, established in 1867, is one of the oldest newspapers in Ohio. Published weekly, September through May, it gives a full coverage of all college events, and that local and world news which is pertinent to life at Ohio Wesleyan. The staff is a large one, including 35 reporters, 25 in circulation, and 55 more engaged in other duties. Any student with a flair for journalism may try his hand on the staff. Ken Gettleman was Editor this year, with Norma Allison as Managing Editor and Don Watters performing the duties of Business Manager.

Le Bijou

The purpose of any yearbook is to give an accurate and interesting presentation of campus life and activities. With a basic ingredient for such an undertaking of long hours of plain hard work, this year's staff started on the book last summer. With duties extending almost to the end of this school year, the various staffs were kept busy with the pictures, writing, and lay-outs for each deadline. Yet, above hard work, the success of the 1951 Le Bijou has been accomplished through the combined efforts of her senior staff, with Paul Finical as editor, Jane Ruble as managing editor, and Chuck Barber as business manager. Looking back on a job well done, the members of the 1951 Le Bijou turn their eyes toward next year's publication, confident that they may uphold the fine tradition maintained this year.

Le Bijou Registration Dance

Our campus' second semester registration dance played host to the ever-popular band of Charlie Spivak. Artistic not only in the instrumental mood, Mr. Spivak displayed the taste that has brought him to heights in the entertainment world by choosing the Le Bijou Beauty Queen and her court. With good music for all and with the pageant coronation ceremonies, this year's registration dance will go unparalleled for a long time.

Bandleader Charlie Spivak faces a tough job in choosing the Le Bijou Queen from these fifteen lovely coeds.

Dorothy Huff

This year's Le Bijou Beauty Queen crown could fall on none other than Dorothy Huff, a sophomore from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. As charming as she is lovely, Dottie is 19 and an English major at Wesleyan. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Anne Dabney

Chi Omega's lovely Anne Dabney was chosen attendant to the 1951 Le Bijou Queen. A senior from Akron, Ohio, Ann plans to use her psychology major in personnel work after graduation. She proudly wears the S.A.E. pin of Joe Minutilli.

Lynn Allison

Lynn Allison, also a sophomore, was very wisely chosen as one of the attendants to the queen. Lynn, whose double major is Speech and English, is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and wears the Beta pin of Harry Mowry next to her arrow.

Barbara Burket

A newcomer to the court of beauty and also to Wesleyan is Barbara Burket, a freshman from Lakewood, Ohio. Barb, a cute and vivacious blond, was also nominated as a candidate for sponsor at this year's military ball and is now affiliated with the Delta Gamma sorority.

Where there are Honoraries, there's Scholarship . . .

Phi Society

The Phi Society was formed with the purpose of recognizing the scholastic achievements of freshmen and sophomore students. Phi Society is a liberal arts scholastic honorary, sponsored by the senior honorary, Phi Beta Kappa. The newly elected junior members of Phi Beta Kappa serve in an advisory capacity for the members of the Phi Society. Since the guiding principles for the two societies are basically the same, a bond is established between them. Aside from the encouragement of high scholarship, the society attempts to broaden the individual into a well-rounded person. The election to Phi Society might well be a goal for every new Wesleyan Student. With such ideals in mind, the student may better realize the significance of scholarship in his college life.

Phi Beta Kappa

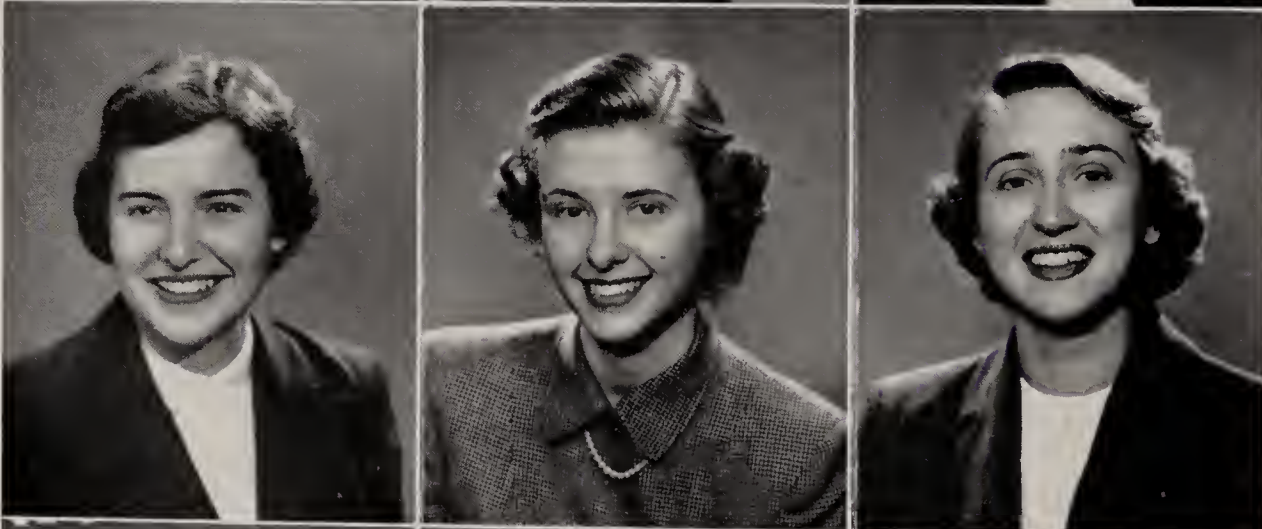

In 1776, at William and Mary College, an organization was established that was destined to make a dynamic entrance on the Ohio Wesleyan campus. Phi Beta Kappa, national scholarship fraternity, overtook a top position on campus on November 9, 1907, and still holds that position today. Each spring, those students who have attained a sufficiently high average are elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Also in the spring, there is Phi Beta Kappa Day. In the morning, a recognition chapel service is held, followed that evening by initiation and a banquet. Membership in Phi Beta Kappa is a high honor, for it means having not only a good scholastic record, but the quality of having a pleasing character.

Gold - Digger's Ball

Every spring the members of Mortar Board sponsor the Gold-diggers Ball, which ranks as one of Ohio Wesleyan's most popular all-campus dances. A variety of conveyances—from milk wagons to roller skates, are employed by the coeds to escort their dates. A King and Queen are chosen, and prizes are awarded for the best corsages, made by the women and worn by their escorts.

Winners of the most original and most humorous corsage contest smile proudly for the camera.

This year Miss Joan Fluke of Kappa Alpha Theta was chosen Queen. Here she is shown being crowned by Sue Ebenhack, Mortar Board president. Jim Williams acted as escort and accepted the King's crown for his fraternity brother, Al Griffin of Phi Gamma Delta who was in the hospital.

Tug - Of - War

The annual Freshman-Sophomore Tug-Of-War, sponsored by Omicron Delta Kappa, senior men's honorary, has become one of the best-loved traditions on Ohio Wesleyan's campus. If the freshmen pull the sophomores into the Olentangy River, they may throw away their "Frosh Dinks" after Thanksgiving vacation. If not, they must wear the red beanies until Christmas. Pictured here are some men straining for the cause, while their classmates cheer them on to victory.

Phi Upsilon Omicron

Ohio Wesleyan's campus is proud of its Home Economic Department's honorary society, Phi Upsilon Omicron. This honorary offers the opportunity of advancement for those girls who excel in the field of home economics by furthering interests in homemaking and improved family and home living. We doff our hats to those with the needle and the ladle in hand.

Home Ec. Club

Holding meetings twice each month, the members of the Home Economics Club were kept busy entertaining graduate speakers and a foreign student panel on other country's living customs. EDUCATION HONORARY

Kappa Delta Pi, perennially among the more active honoraries, enjoyed another richly rewarding year. At the monthly meetings there were programs planned for both the enjoyment and information of members. Education majors from past years were often on hand to relate their experiences as teachers and to give advice to the future teacher. There were, on several occasions, well-known educators who spoke on points pertinent to educational interests. President Bob Steele and Chairman Peg Murphy coordinated the programs.

"Soccer, hockey, and tennis are Germany's main sports," says Horst Lunau. "Although not as much emphasis is placed on sports in the schools of Germany as there is here in America, a great majority of the people in Germany participate in sports."

According to Horst, who was president of the International Students Association this year, the big spectator interest in Germany lies in amateur sports. "The professional sports, like the baseball leagues you have here, are new to Germany," continues Horst. "However, there are national teams from Germany, France, and England which compete with each other, especially in soccer."

"I don't know much about girls' sports in Germany, except that hockey and tennis are the favorites," laughingly admits Horst. "We don't have mixed schools so I haven't had much chance to watch the girls in action."

OTTERBEIN

The Bishops opened the season with a 60-14 victory over Otterbein at Westerville. As a result of Wesleyan's penalties and fumbles, the Otters took a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. In the second period Hayden Buckley fired three touchdown passes and Wedge bucked over to give the Bishops a 26-14 edge at the half. While Buckley connected on six out of seven aerials, Don Wedge raced 88 yards on the first play from scrimmage in the second half. Wedge, Rod Heine, and Bob Gardner all scored a pair of T.D.'s while Joe Slone, Dale Bruce and Sam Radar added a six-pointer apiece.

BALDWIN-WALLACE

The Yellow Jackets from Baldwin-Wallace continued their football supremacy over Ohio Wesleyan at Selby Stadium by defeating us 35-20. With the final encounter of the two teams in a rivalry dating back to 1895, Baldwin-Wallace won eleven of the thirteen contests. Norb Hecker, Yellow Jacket end, paced B-W with three touchdowns and five conversions. Sparked by the passing of Buckley and Allen, the Bishops held a 13-7 lead at the end of the first half, but were unable to stave off the Jacket's powerful second half running and passing attack.

CONNECTICUT

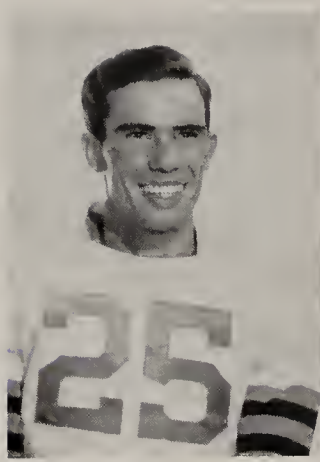

The Bishops lost their third game of the season 20-14 as they traveled to Storrs to meet the Huskies of the University of Connecticut. Scoring all three Huskie touchdowns, the sophomore passing combination of Irv Panciera and Joe Bettincourt proved too much for the favored Bishops. Bob Gardner's tally and Hayden Buckley's placement split the uprights to give Wesleyan a 7-6 lead at the half. In the fourth quarter, the Huskies shoved over 2 touchdowns on passes to ice the contest. A Buckley to Miller pass, good for 53 yards, and a touchdown with three minutes remaining, kept the Bishops' hopes alive, but Connecticut maintained possession after the kickoff until the game ended.

CASE

The Bishops next traveled to Cleveland to meet the favored Case Rough Riders, who defeated the Bishops 20-13 before a homecoming crowd of 5,000 at muddy Shaw Field. The Bishops had the ball deep in Case territory in the first quarter, but the Riders slammed the door shut on the Red and Black attack. Forced to punt after recovering a Case fumble in the second period, Buckley momentarily fumbled the ball, recovered, and skirted right end for twenty yards to set up the first score of the game. Rod Heine's catch in the end zone and Buckley's placement gave the Bishops a 7-0 lead. But the Riders passing and running was too much as they exploded with 3 touchdowns to put the game on ice.

DENISON

The Bishops knocked the Big Red of Denison from the unbeaten collegiate ranks by upsetting them 33-13 at Deed's Field. Playing before a capacity homecoming crowd at Granville, the Bishops became the first team to score on the Big Red. First player to dent the Big Red goal line was Bob Gardner. Donn Miller then raced 44 yards on a reverse to put Wesleyan ahead 12-0, Vossers converting. Midway in the second quarter, Dale Bruce snagged Buckley's aerial on a 50 yard scoring play. Gardner skirted left end and Paul Monroe caught Joe Slone's pass for the remaining T.D.'s.

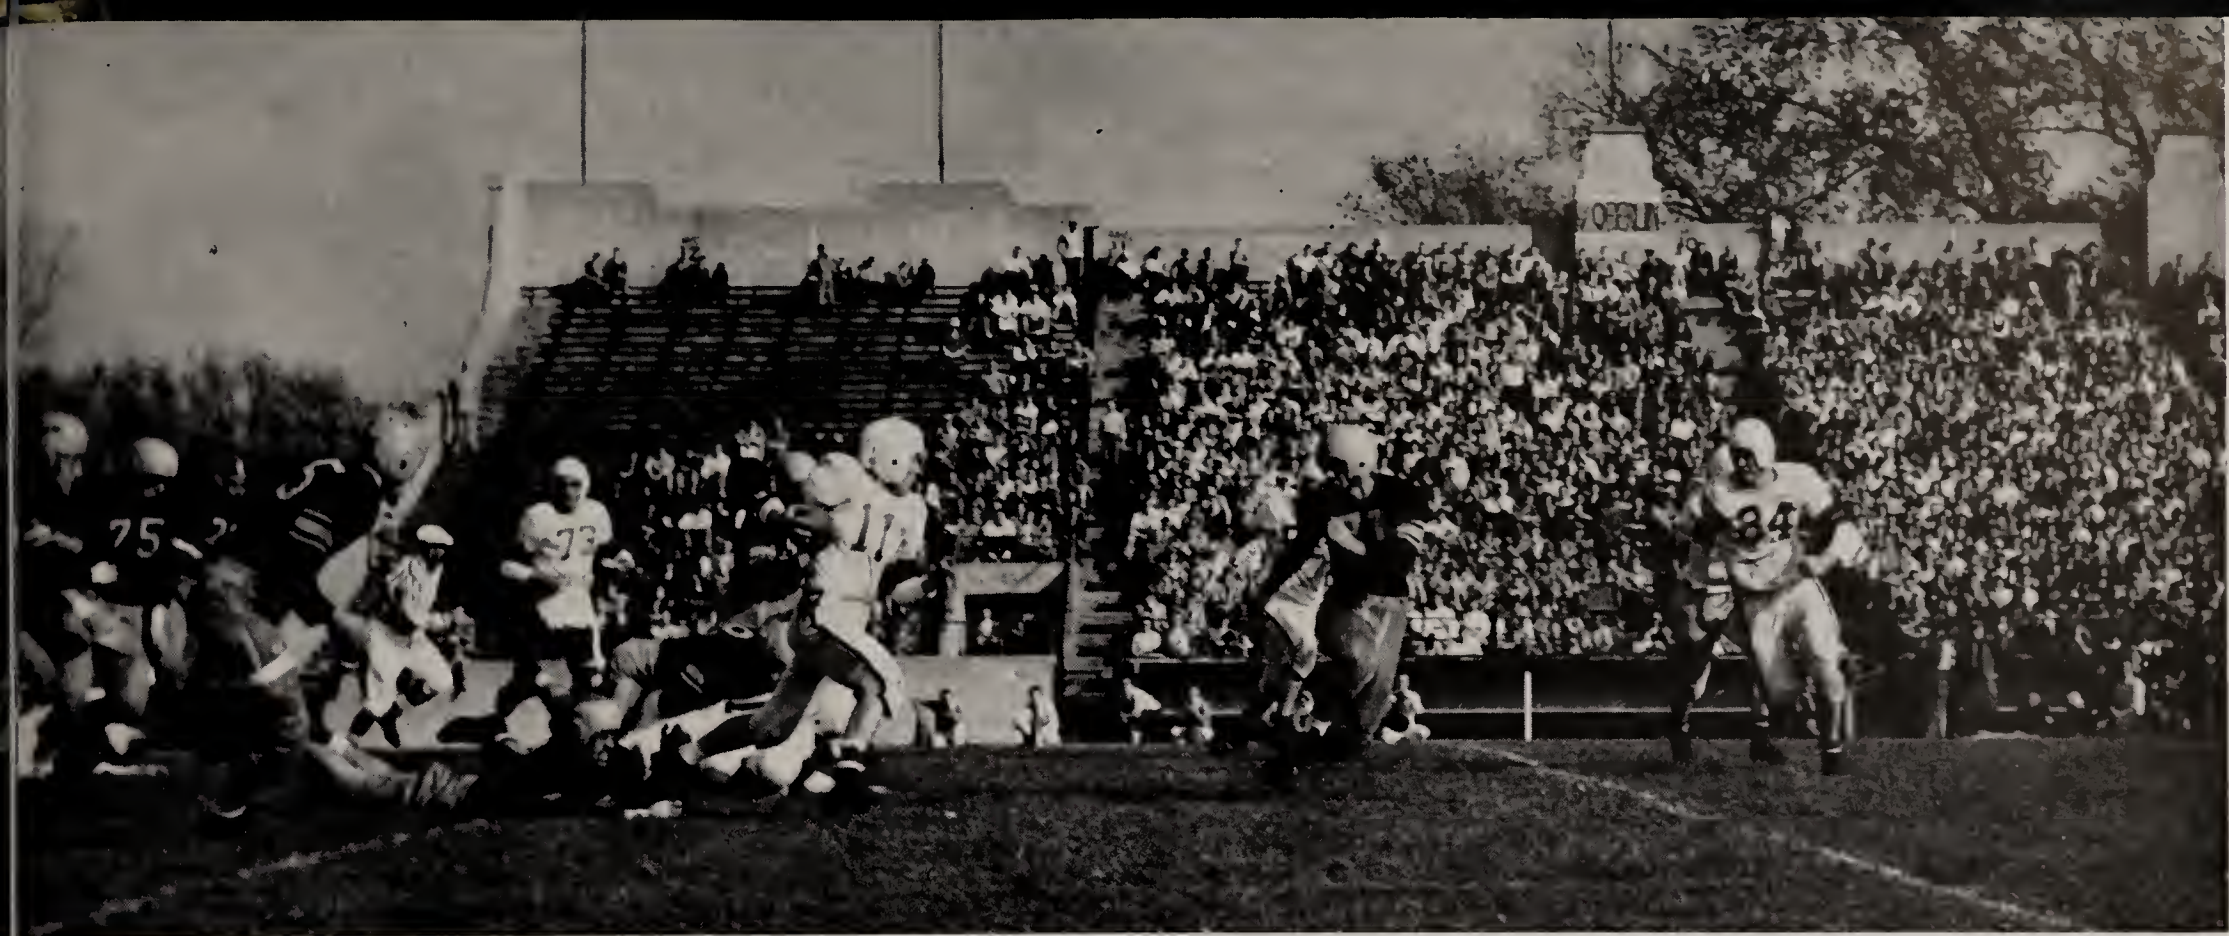

Bob Gardner

OBERLIN

Before this third straight homecoming crowd, it was the running of Gardner, a hard charging line and an alert pass defense that upset the favored Oberlin Yoemen eleven 26-7. Climaxing a 53 yard march, Gardner swept right end from the 11 and Vossers converted to give the Bishops a 7-0 lead at the half. Opening the second half by breaking through tackle, Gardner raced 64 yards to score. The 150 pound halfback swept right end again from the 14 for another score, after which Jack Allen hit Rod Heine with a touchdown pass for the final scoring of the afternoon.

ACTION PACKED!

MT. UNION

Ohio Wesleyan in defeating Mt. Union's Purple Raiders, upset its third consecutive previously unbeaten opponent. Tom Bangert sparked the defensive unit as they presented the offensive team with one scoring opportunity after another. Powered with Bob Gardner's 32 yard end sweep and Don Wedge's plunge over center from the 2, the Bishops took a 14-2 lead at the half. Scoring twice more on a fake hand-off and a line plunge in the last 20 seconds, Gardner clinched victory and ran his season's total up to 72 points.

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON

Before a Dad's Day crowd of 4,000, Wesleyan concluded its football season with a 27-7 victory over the Presidents from Washington and Jefferson. Gardner's 3 touchdowns ran his total up to 90 points to tie the seasonal scoring record set by teammate Don Wedge in the 1949 campaign. Fullback, Don Wedge, added another tally to his credit as he plunged over from the two. With an all-senior lineup on offense, the Bishops ran one last play. Gardner carried and almost broke away but was downed deep in the President's territory as the gun sounded.

WITTENBERG

Trailing 7-0 to an underdog Wittenberg team, Wesleyan's desperate drives to the Lutheran 17, 20, and 15 stalled. Then with 3 minutes to go in the game the Wittenberg eleven elected to gamble, and Wesleyan took over on their opponent's 27 yard line. After Joe Slone had picked up 12 yards on an aerial, Buckley threw the touchdown pass to Rad Heine who made a beautiful running catch and crossed the goal just before he was forced out of bounds. With Paul Spangler holding, John Vossers kicked the all important extra point that tied up the ball game 7-7.

Don Wedge's move closes in Brooks after catching a pass in early part of Baldwin Wallace game.

Chuck Barber upsets Washington and Jefferson pass play.

Freshman Football

Prospects for a good varsity team next year looked promising with a smooth freshman team reporting this fall. The frosh started out slowly by losing to a strong Mt. Union eleven, 27-13. They came back in the second game to tie Wittenberg, 13-13, and showed strong improvement by spilling the Otterbein squad 42-21. Pacing a fast and hard-hitting backfield were Dave Stoner, Jim Moses, Bob Bobazzoli, and Jim Pumphrey. The line, which averaged a solid 179 pounds, was strong opposition to O.W.U. opponents. With this year's hard-hitting freshman line and fast backfield, Ohio Wesleyan has high hopes of putting another strong varsity team on the field.

Homecoming Day

Gridiron thrills, decorations, the after-game dance, and the reunion of old Wesleyan chums held all attention over this year's Homecoming weekend. While Chi Omega's lovely Ginger Figley was crowned queen of the day, Phi Delta Theta captured the IFC cup for their unique puppet show. Though that festive day is now but a memory, always will we hold dear those warm experiences of meeting new faces and of renewing old friendships.

A Successful Season

Rowland and Coverdale
ready for rebound.

With captain Jud Millhon pacing the way, Ohio Wesleyan got off to a fast start against Rio Grande, but they ran into a four game losing streak including a heart-breaking 1 point defeat by Kent State. The Bishops won only 4 of their first 13 games, but even in defeat, Jud continued to make sports fans all over the country sit up and take notice as he averaged about 23 points per game. With big Bob Coverdale and Dick Rowland at forwards, and Bill Millhon, John Bauknecht and Jack Allen at the guards, the Bishops "found" themselves about half way through the season. Otterbein, Denison, and Capital were defeated by decisive margins, and then the thriller of the year, the overtime game with Mount Union, saw the Bishops come out on top, 81-76.

Basketball

Jack Allen —

Gifted with lots of speed, a good set shot, and exceptional dribbling ability, Jack came into his own about midway through the season. Only a junior, Jack is expected to hold down one of the starting posts on next year's five.

John Bauknecht —

In his first year on the squad, John has held down one of the first string guard positions. With plenty of speed and drive, John has consistently broken through opponent's defense. Also a junior, he is being counted on for next year's squad.

Bob Coverdale goes up after the ball —the game is on.

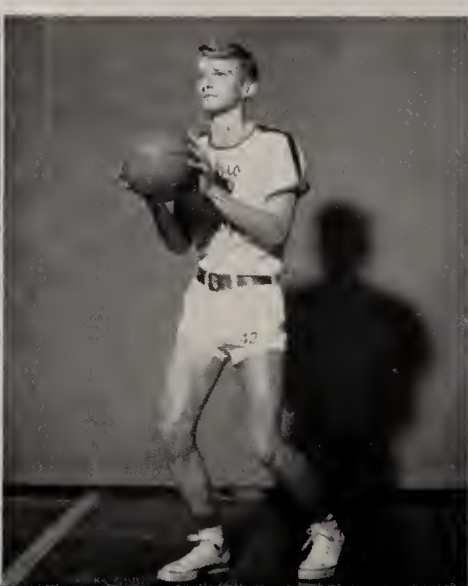

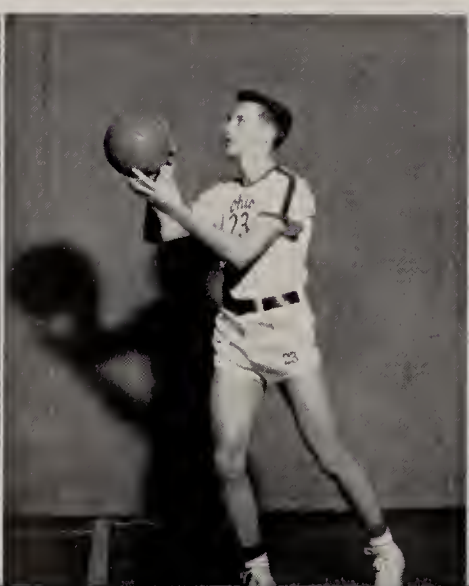

Jack Allen

Bob Coverdale

Chuck Myers

Jud Millhon

Robert Coverdale —

First-string forward this year, the 6' 5" junior has improved 100% since his sophomore year. He uses his height exceptionally well under the boards in getting rebounds. Bob also has an effective one-hand push shot from the side.

Judson Millhon —

Jud, as picked at the beginning of the season, is one of the ten best players in the Mid-West. He holds the single-game, single-season and total point records at Wesleyan. Jud led the Ohio Conference in scoring his sophomore and junior years and each year received All-Conference and All-Ohio awards. Jud was elected captain of this year's team. He can shoot with either hand, and his left-handed hook is unstoppable.

William Millhon —

Twin of Jud, Bill held down a first string guard position on this year's five. A good ball-handler and defensive man, Bill also has an accurate one-hand set shot.

Charles Myers

Sophomore forward, Chuck was one of the leading scorers with the frosh last year. He has a deadly shooting eye, and with a little more experience should develop into a threat.

Stewart Petersen —

A good rebounder, "Stew" has come a long way this year, and should come into his own in the next two years.

Russell Ramsey —

One of the four lettermen of this year's squad, Russ has been plagued by a knee injury. Although lacking in speed, Russ has a good set shot and is an aggressive defensive man.

Richard Rowland —

Dick held down one of the first string forward positions this year. He has a great one-hand push shot from the corner. Dick does a good job on rebounding, and has brought the crowd to its feet with his trick shots under the basket.

Kenneth Salisiewski —

Another member of last year's freshman squad, Ken is an aggressive player and a good ball-handler. Not too good a shot, with more experience he should be a help to future Bishop teams.

Freshman Basketball

The 1950-51 freshman basketball team is reported by Coach Bill Daugherty to contain the greatest array of talent since the undefeated frosh team of 46-47. Height was one of the features of the Baby Bishops, as the starting five averaged almost six feet three inches. In a schedule of six intercollegiate skirmishes as well as with fraternity teams, the frosh squad promises to develop into one of the most outstanding Ohio Conference teams seen in years.

Baseball

After a cloudy pre-season record, Coach Bill Daugherty's diamond aces snapped back to clinch the Ohio Conference championship with a tally of ten victories against two losses. While pitchers Nelson Reeves and Dave Wiedie handled the mound staff, Bill Apel led the team batting a .357 seasonal average. John Bahner was captain during the Bishop season.

Spring Track

FIRST ROW: J. Collins, B. Fandran, R. Riemenschneider, J. Pape, D. Williams, R. Gardner, G. Kerns, D. Baker, W. Strand. SECOND ROW: Caach Geesman, T. Bangert, R. MacCracken, W. Smith, D. Miller, W. The Bishop tracksters enjoyed another successful season, dropping only two dual meets, one each to Oberlin and Albion. Paced by co-captains Dave Williams and Bob Gardner, the Wesleyan thinclads finished in second place in the Ohio Conference and third in the All-Ohio meet.

Cross Country

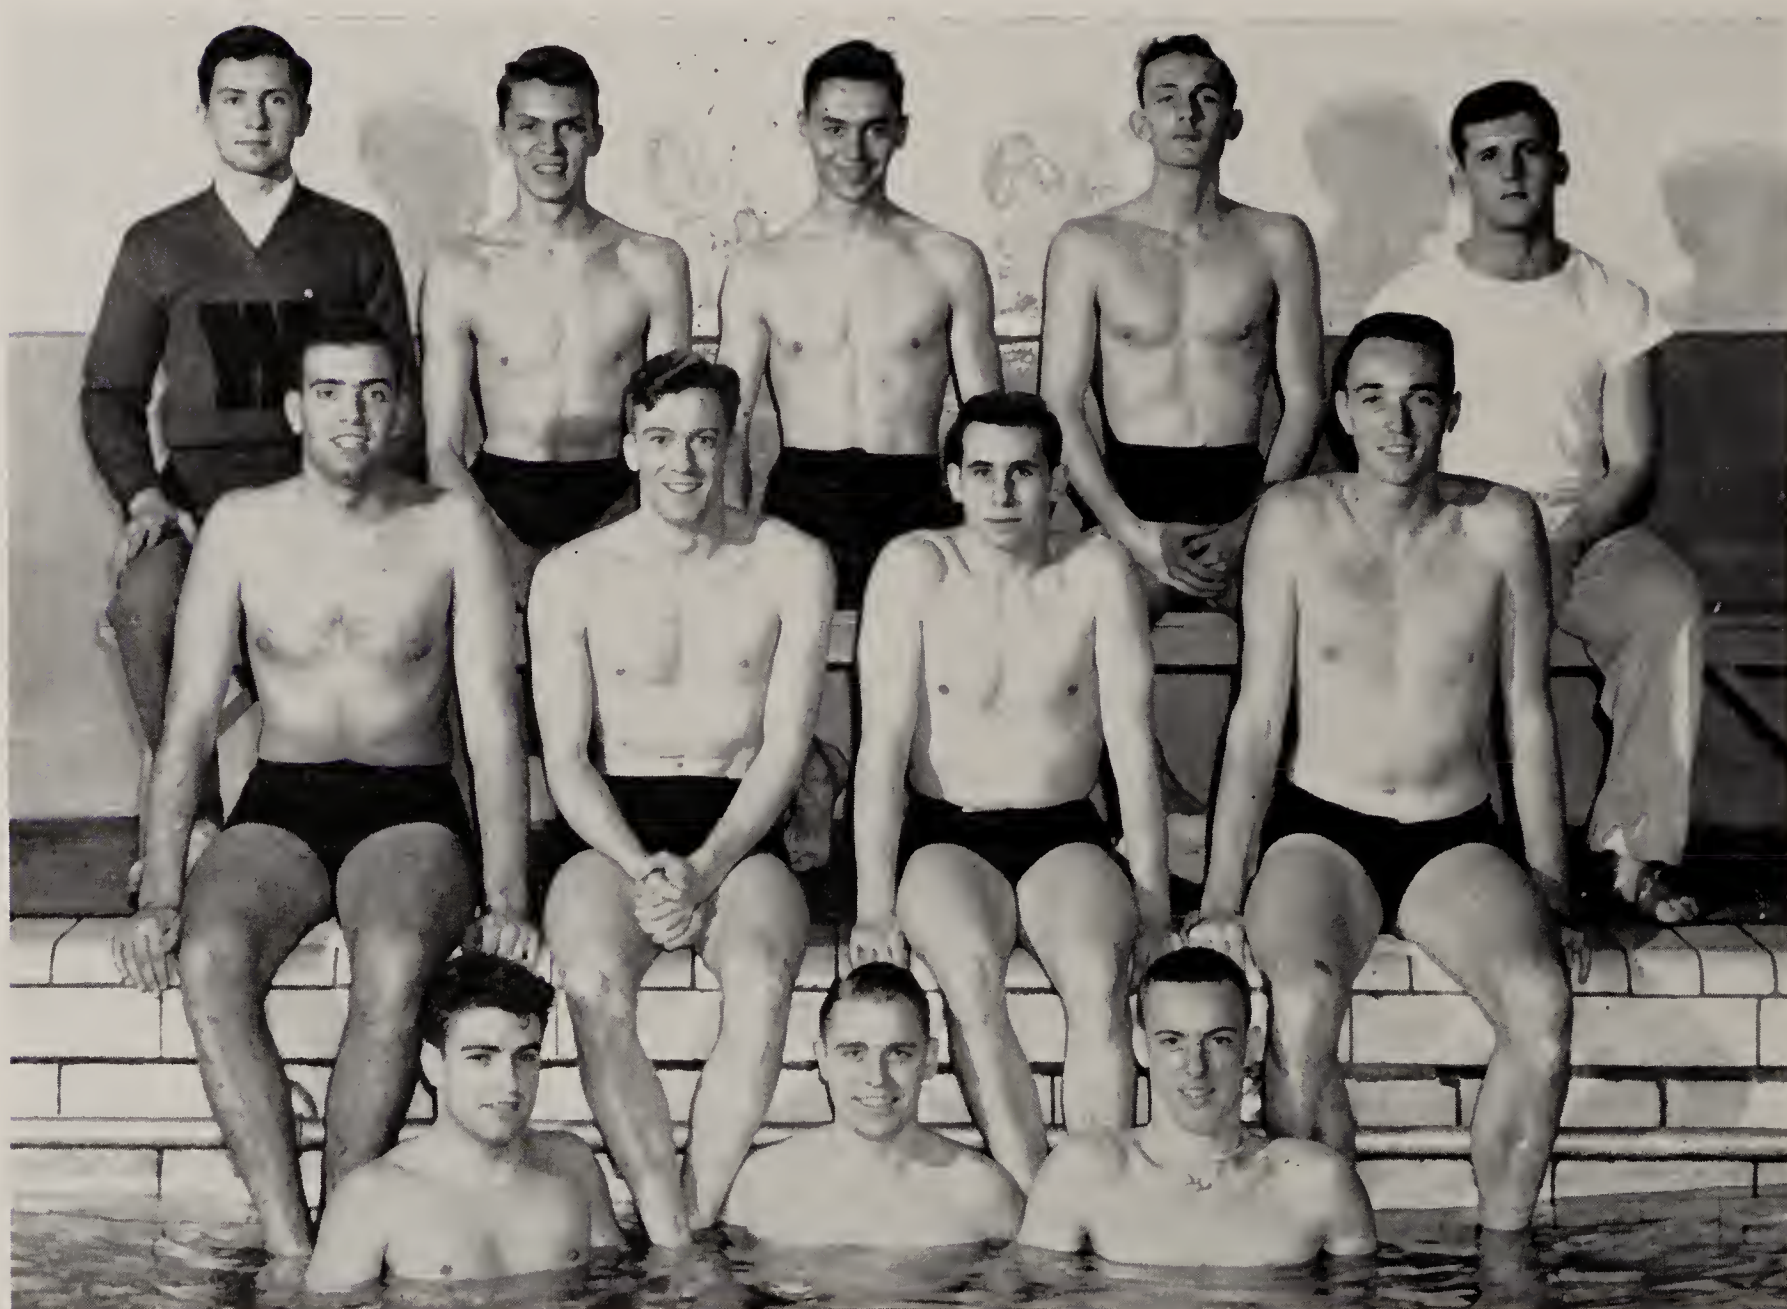

The 1950 Bishop cross-country squad, although led by a pair of outstanding runners, lacked the over-all strength to ensure a winning season. They defeated Baldwin Wallace, Mount Union, and Akron in a nine-meet schedule, and placed fourth in the Ohio Conference meet. Junior Bill Smith and sophomore Lloyd Horrocks were the pace-setters, each winning individual honors in all meets.

Swimming . . .

Don Wedge's mermen had a tough season this year, getting off on the wrong foot by losing their first meet of the season to Wooster. Despite a comeback at their next meet, the team couldn't come out on top in those following. Free-styler Dave Hummel and diver Doug Smith paced the team.

Tennis

Despite a poor showing in a tough 1950 season, Coach Shanklin's racquet men held high hopes for the coming season. Plagued by a succession of injuries and hard luck, Wesleyan dropped heart-breakers to Ohio State, Kenyon, and Denison, but walloped Wooster, Capital, and Ohio Northern.

Intramurals

With a well-organized program of intramural sports throughout the year, both sororities and fraternities competed for that keenly sought goal—the annual intramural trophy. Whether in football, basketball, softball, or volleyball, those fraternity men not in varsity sports put their all into each event while the women fight it out in a number of sports including basketball, softball, and bowling. As in the past few years, competition was extremely close, the winner ending up only a few points above the next high competitors.

Women's Recreation Association . . .

The organization on campus that almost every girl participates in at one time or another is the Women's Recreation Association. Every type of sport is offered during the year, both in the Fall and in the Spring. Intramural teams are set up for all those who wish to participate, and for those who are more skillful at the games, all star teams for hockey and basketball are organized.

Women's Sports

Archery

Due to the poor weather this fall, the archery program was restricted to a practice session to get warmed up for the spring tournament. Under the capable direction of Dolores Radio, archery sporthead, "postcard" tournaments were held with other schools in which the Wesleyan shooters sent their scores in to a central board and compared them with those of other participating schools.

Bowling

Bowling is sponsored both in the fall and in the spring semester this year. Louise Damon organized the various sorority and independent groups' teams into a tournament which was played off at the Recreation Bowling Alleys on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

Hockey

Coming out on top this year to win the hockey trophy was the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, who beat the Zeta Tau Alphas in the final play. Each Wednesday and Thursday afternoon saw the sorority and independent teams battling it out at the Women's Athletic Field, and the middle of November saw the windup for the hockey tournament this year.

Competition is keen as basketeers jump for rebound.

Basketball

The intramural basketball tournament was set up this year by Beth Beattie and Lois Smith, co-sport-heads. Each sorority and independent group sets up from one to three teams; and on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, the various teams play off their games at the Armory. The team winning the tournament is awarded a trophy at the end of the year during the annual WRA banquet.

"The social activity here at Wesleyan is wonderful," acclaims Ma-Moun Mudarris. "In Syria there are no coeds, at least not until you are finished with your master's degree. The schools there have a big dance or party with girls, once a year. The rest of the time we study."

"Fraternity life has meant a lot to me," continues Ma Moun, who is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon. There are no such clubs or organizations in Syrian schools. Of course there are groups of good friends and students with the same interests who band together, but they are not the centers for social life that the Wesleyan fraternities are. Here, in the fraternity and at Wesleyan, I have had a chance to make friends that I will never lose."

Panhellenic Council

To incorporate informality and naturalness between sorority women and rushees, Panhellenic Council this year set up a new rushing program between semesters. Under President Carolyn Carr, the organization goes on making great strides in improving sorority relations with their annual workshops and scholarship trophy.

Inter-fraternity Council

Interfraternity council is composed of various representatives from each of Wesleyan's 15 fraternities. In coordinating the rushing program, pledge training, and Hell week between semesters, and in awarding their annual scholarship trophy, IFC has continued to develop high character in men's Greek letter societies on our campus.

Pledging of freshmen is handled by IFC.

Greeted this fall by a charming new house-mother, Mrs. Stilwell, and by a newly redecorated fraternity house, the brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi pledged twenty freshmen and continued to excel in all varsity sports, intramurals, and scholastic achievement. All in all, Alpha Sig's can look back on a highly successful year.

The addition of a new kitchen greeted the Chi Phis on their return to the Oaks. Rush Week ended with sixteen pledges added to Alpha Chi. The first few weeks of school found 95 per cent of the Chi Phis enrolled in ROTC, and as the year passed the chapter rolls were slightly depleted by enlistments and recalls to active duty. A well-balanced program of sports, scholarship, and social activities made it a great year for Chi Phi.

Led by President Al Griffin, Treasurer Bob Freeman, Recording Secretary Chuck Barber, Corresponding Secretary Tom Torrance, and Historian Jack Kerby, Theta Deuteron "Fijis" successfully completed their eighty-second year on campus. Ever striving to maintain its high chapter standards, Phi Gamma Delta highlighted an event-studded schedule with a Fiji Island Party, "tropics style", and an alumni-packed Norris Pig Dinner.

Men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon point with pride and satisfaction to the year 1950-51 which saw it maintain its high standing among OWU fraternities. SAE was a leader in every phase of campus life. With an excellent pledge class of twenty members, the Sig Alphas look to the future to continue their first class rating.

In a year beset with uncertainty and confusion, Sigma Chi retained its positive program in both chapter and campus affairs. With the all year intermural trophy, with one of our best pledge classes and with confidence engendered by our solidarity, Gamma chapter embellished the record of the fraternity system in which it so strongly believes.

The Sig Eps entered their thirty-sixth year at Ohio Wesleyan with a pledge class of eighteen and high hopes for the year ahead. Throughout the year those aspirations were realized many times over. Representatives in campus offices were abundant, social events like their famed Monte Carlo party flourished, and scholarship improved. With this realization, Sig Ep continued to maintain its place among the top on Wesleyan's campus.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Alpha Mu Chapter of Phi Kappa Tau has had an excellent year's progress despite the recall of two of their actives to the Marine Corps and the Navy. Opening the year with an open house, their first since reactivation four years ago, they recaptured the scholarship improvement cup, and in addition had numerous successful social events, highlighted by the Winter Wonderland Formal.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

The "Fraternity for Life" has been the goal followed at the "Teke" house in the fellowship between pledges and actives, so that a stronger bond can be acquired in the house and carried on throughout graduate years. The "Teke" house has had many interior improvements in the past year and campus participation in all fields of activity has been strived for by the fraters.

Ines Guryand came to Wesleyan from Latvia. She and her family and others like them have spent the last few years trying to keep away from the communists. Like the many other Europeans who have come to America, she is amazed at the great quantity and variety of things to buy in our stores. But she is almost more amazed at American advertising. "Why, everywhere I turn I see an ad," Ines says. "In Latvia we have some advertising, but not on the radio and not on the streets. Perhaps the shop-owners feel that they do not need to advertise since there are so few things to sell and everyone is eager to buy," admits Ines. "During the war we got used to raising all our own food and remaking all our old clothes many times. Now that the communists have come there is little difference. I guess the shop-owners are right. We do not need ads."

Dear Le Bijou:

Down through the years you have provided a pictorial record of Ohio Wesleyan and her sons and daughters. Your nineteen hundred and nineteen issue was compiled through the efforts of Harold C. Havighurst and Dale J. Warner and numerous unmentioned others. Your pages depict Ohio Wesleyan passing through the era of the First World War, a time not too unlike the present.

In checking the faces of faculty members engraved on your pages I find only six out of sixty-eight still active,—Ben Arneson, Ernest Amy, Clyde Hubbart, Claude O'Neal, Harvey Hewitt and Omen Boring. Step up, gentlemen, and take a bow. Whether you know it or not, you are patriarchs. Other items of interest I gleaned from your dusty pages are that dishwasher run was even then dishwasher run; Wesleyan had just completed a series of four State Championships in soccer; that co-eds were allowed to do folk dancing in public only twice a year; that Prof. Westgate thought the Bijou was the biggest holdup on God's green earth; that Charlie West of New Deal fame was president of the YMCA, was unexcelled in originality of scalp movement and had ears of high portent of the future; that a young entrepreneur, Bun Hoffman, even then was trying to influence students to remove ice cream, cakes and candies from his premises at 10 W. Winter St., a habit which he seemingly will never overcome; that Roy Hoffman was a member of the Sophomore Class, a rank which he relished so ravenously that even today it marks the high point of his scholastic achievements.

Reminiscently yours,
Roy Himself

We of the 1951 Le Bijou staff wish to thank the following persons for their assistance throughout the year: Mr. Judson Rinebold of the Groy Printing Company, Mr. Roy Mileti of the Cleveland Engraving Company, Mr. Carl Benz of the S. K. Smith Cover Company, Messrs. Jim Apple and George Cryder, Mr. George Fleshmon and his staff, and our advisors, Mr. Poul Evans and Mr. Robert Meyer.

We also wish to express our gratitude to the faculty, administration, and student body of Ohio Wesleyan University for their cooperation. Good luck to the 1952 staff.
